

Arun Nayar is senior vice president and treasurer of Tyco International, a position he was appointed to in March 2008.

As treasurer, Nayar oversees Tyco's treasury activities, including corporate financial strategy, capital structure, cash management, risk management and hedging, international finance, debt management, benefit plan investments, insurance and relationships with financial institutions and rating agencies.

Before joining Tyco, Nayar spent six years at PepsiCo, Inc., most recently as chief financial officer of Operations, and before that as vice president and assistant treasurer of the Capital Markets group.

A global financial executive with a wealth of financial leadership skills, Nayar's career in finance spans more than 35 years, and includes 11 years at the engineering company ABB Ltd. as president of ABB Financial Services (USA) Inc. and 11 years at Westinghouse Electric Corporation in a series of finance leadership positions. Prior to that, he served as an audit manager at Arthur Andersen LLP in Saudi Arabia. He began his career as an audit clerk at Hays Allan, an accounting firm in London.

Nayar has a Bachelors degree in Economics from the University of Delhi, India and is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.