

John E. Evard, Jr. is Senior Vice President and Chief Tax Officer of Tyco International since January 2003. He is responsible for all of Tyco's tax activities worldwide.

Prior to joining Tyco International, Evard served as Vice President, Tax at United Technologies Corporation (UTC) from August 2000. Prior to joining United Technologies, Evard held a number of positions at CNH Global N.V. and its predecessor company, Case Corp., including Senior Vice President, Corporate Development, and General Tax Counsel from December 1989 to August 2000. Prior to joining Case Corp., Evard held several positions of increasing responsibilities in the tax department of Atlantic Richfield Company.

Evard received his bachelor's degree from the University of California, Santa Barbara in 1969. He received his law degree from the University of Arizona in 1974 and his LLM in taxation from New York University in 1975.

Evard is married and lives with his wife, Beth in Princeton, NJ.