

Jim Spicer is president of SimplexGrinnell, the centerpiece of Tyco's Fire Protection Services group of businesses. SimplexGrinnell is a leading provider of fire detection and alarm, fire sprinkler, fire suppression, and integrated security systems and services.

Spicer has had a long, successful career with Simplex and SimplexGrinnell, occupying corporate marketing, sales management and senior leadership positions. He was named president of the company in October 2007. Prior to that, he had most recently served as vice president of business operations, working to streamline business operations, accelerate organic growth and drive SimplexGrinnell's key business strategies.

During his 17 years with the company, Spicer has also held critical field management roles, including vice president of field operations and vice president of north central operations.

In 2006, Spicer earned the prestigious Tyco Chairman's Award from chairman and CEO Ed Breen for his outstanding career and impressive array of accomplishments with Tyco.
